

Holy Trinity Church Newsletter August 2020

Dear Friends,

Here we are in the middle of the summer holiday season but not many of us are going far from home this year! However, it does give us a chance to appreciate the beauties of Angus. We are fortunate to live in in one of the loveliest counties in Scotland, with beautiful beaches, lovely countryside and hills and glens nearby.

We always have something to be thankful for.

At present the virus is being controlled in this part of the country and most of us can get back to something that seems fairly normal.

Let's thank God, our heavenly Father, for the progress that has been made and continue to pray for and care for one another.

Soon we hope to be back in our much-missed church building.

If you are passing the church on a dry day, do go and sit in the Prayer Garden and enjoy its peace and tranquillity.

Marj and Fiona have been busy with the planters and it looks beautiful.

Take care and keep safe,

Linda Walls (Lay Reader)

News from the Vestry

Vestry members have been working hard to reconfigure the seating in church to seat the maximum amount of people in a safe way. This work is on-going, also the organising of professional cleaning and the ordering of hand sanitiser and other essentials.

Although not a lot seems to be happening at Holy Trinity, there has been a lot going on behind the scenes, with meetings via Zoom at Diocesan and local level. They have advised us about all the government regulations and other churches have shared their experience with us.

The vestry have decided that we cannot open the church safely until later on in September. We will keep you up to date with any further developments.

Meanwhile Sunday Services will continue via Zoom.

Fiona's coffee mornings will also continue every second Saturday. Next one 1st August at 10.30am. (Phone Fiona for an invitation 01241 857464 or email fionabeetle@yahoo.com)

Long-term future for Holy Trinity

As indicated in the last vestry update, sharing a priest with Holy Rood Carnoustie is the preferred way ahead. The vestry have agreed to this in principal with Bishop Andrew and will be meeting him via Zoom towards the end of August to go into this in more detail.

If you did not get the last update (it went out by email and some people had difficulties with it) please let me know and I'll send it to you again linda@fswalls.org
